

She was so pleased to be the first one of her friends to have a hand phone. She wanted to play with it all the time.

Of course, her parents told her it wasn't a toy and she must look after it very carefully.

Nur Aqlima had always wanted a hand phone. Well, what girl doesn't nowadays?

