

It seemed like such a long way to the aquatic centre. She couldn't wait to jump into the water.

Sofea likes cool things, and she also likes to go swimming. So when it was time to go, she packed her things into her cool bag.

She had been thinking about this special treat all week, and now finally she would get to go swimming. Sofea was pleased and happy.

