

But then he found
he was in a long
hallway, with
purple doors
along each side. It seemed very strange.

Azhad was in a little boat in the middle of a big lake. He could see an island, and he started to row
the boat.

Suddenly he sat up.
Ohhh! He was so glad it was just a dream! He was glad to get up and go to school where
there was no lake.
